WELCOME, NEW FAMILIES...

Alan and Rosemary Olas

Alan and Rosemary Olas (aka, Zoe's grandparents, Liddy Miller's parents) recently moved to Lee's Summit from Warrensburg, MO. During the 38 years they lived in Warrensburg, they served the Warrensburg Church of Christ in many capacities, including Alan serving as elder for 10 years, teaching classes of all ages, VBS, youth activities, and a campus ministry.

Alan is retired from the US Air Force and more recently from Housing Management at WAFB. Rosemary, a stay-at-home Mom for 25 years, recently retired from her second career as Director of Broadcasting Services at UCM. They met while both were in the USAF, stationed in Ft. Worth, TX, and lived in many places during their military career.

They have 4 children and 7 grandchildren, most living in Lee's Summit – thus the move to be closer to the family. Alan is a do-it-yourself handyman at home, enjoys working on and showing his Studebakers, and playing a round of golf. Rosemary enjoys playing with the grandbabies, crochet, and singing. She sings with the Kansas City Chorus of Sweet Adelines, currently preparing for the international competition in Las Vegas later this year.

Both Alan and Rosemary say they are excited to be at BRCC and look forward to becoming more involved as they get settled into their new home.

The Olases are certainly a welcome addition to the Blue River family.
