WELCOME, NEW FAMILIES...

Roger and Donna Wealand

We are happy to welcome Roger and Donna Wealand back to the Blue River family.

Roger and Donna met at the Raytown Church of Christ when they were 11 and 13 years of age. They were both raised in the church. They dated each other for a very short time when Roger graduated from high school. While Donna was still in high school, she worked and was always reading books, and a straight A student. Roger was a typical guy who always worked and did not get straight A grades. Donna married and had four children and Roger married and had two daughters. Forty years later, both of their spouses had passed while still fairly young. In 2003, Roger contacted Donna and learned she was not married. They have been together for 12 years and worshiped with Blue River for the first 5 before moving away. This year they moved back to Raytown. Roger retired from photography, and Donna is a retired teacher and psychologist. Roger's hobby is photography, and Donna, as always, reads, gives presents, and does benevolence to anyone in need.

We are glad the Wealands are back and again part of the Blue River family.
