Congratulations to all LTC Participants

We want to commend all of our LTC students for their participation in the many categories and challenges last weekend. They did an excellent job and we're proud of their representation of Blue River. In addition to the students, we want to thank all of the adult volunteers that worked hard to help make the event a success and for Jennifer Hall and Angelia Hudkins as coordinators.

Members Directories

There are copies of Address & Phone and Email directories in the reception area. Please review and check off if correct or make any edits that are necessary. If your name has been highlighted, your information has been confirmed or updated. If not highlighted, you still need to review.
