The Preacher's Post – Darin Kennedy

This was printed in our bulletin in June 2008. I read this at the memorial service yesterday, but I thought I would print it for everyone. It is a reminder that we have been challenged by the witness of love that we have seen and felt in Fleta. The greatest honor we might give to Fleta is to imitate her loving nature, words, and actions to one another and to strangers.

LET'S REACH OUT by Fleta Duncan

Let's reach out to touch each other
With a love that's from above,
Maybe just a smile or handshake,
A kiss, a pat to show our love.

Let our hands be full of mercy.
Let our words be soft and true.
Let us only be encouraging
In everything we say and do.

Let's reach out to touch each other;
Love's the only way we can.
We must strive to help our brother,
For it's in our Father's plan.

Of one blood he has made us,
So reach out and touch a hand.
Some are groping in the darkness.
Let's just love our fellowman.
